

Nadine Akhund-Lange

3 First Place, Brooklyn, New York, 11231, USA
190 rue de Courcelles, 75017, Paris, France
FR: 06 22 05 28 60
US: 001 917 721 4019

HISTORIAN, LECTURER, EDITOR AND RESEARCH ASSOCIATE

Key Competences

- International Academic and Research Project Experience
- Editorial Project Management and Online Publication
- Cross-functional, High Motivation and Drive
- Talks and Lectures in USA, France, Germany, Austria, Hungary, Serbia, and Greece

Languages: French (native), English (fluent), German (proficient)

Nationalities: French and US

Professional Experiences

Library of Social Science Institute, New York, NY - Development Editor 2013-2016

LSS produces scholarship related to psychology and ideologies of war (World War I-World War II)

Website: <https://www.libraryofsocialscience.com>.

- Select authors, books, research papers and articles for online publication
- Manage online publications including the launch and maintenance of the LSS Guest Newsletters Essay
- Administer files, papers and electronic resources. Primary correspondent with contributors to LSS

Sorbonne-Identities, International Relations and Civilizations of Europe (SIRICE) 2011-present

Joint Research Unit (UMR), Center for National Scientific Research (CNRS), Paris - Research Associate

- Research Project: The Carnegie Endowment of International Peace. A non-Governmental Organization, 1910-1940. Identify and analyze archival sources with a primary focus in the Carnegie Collections, Rare Book and Manuscript Library, Columbia University 2009-present
- Book under contract, Alma Editeur, Paris. Scheduled for publication in 2018

Columbia University, New York, NY - Adjunct Associate Professor 2001-2009

- School of International and Public Affairs. Created and developed course: The Balkans, National Identities and the Islamic Factor, 1878-1995. Undergraduate and Graduate level
- 2001: Department of History, taught course: The Balkans from 1800 to 1949. Nationalism, socioeconomic and cultural aspects up to the dissolution of Yugoslavia in the 1990's

Museum Salomon R. Guggenheim, New York, NY - Gallery Lecturer 1996-2002

- Collaborated with curators for creation and implementation of public programming
- Associate with the setting of temporary exhibitions
- Lectured to groups (up to 30 people) in English and French
- Participated in special events linked to temporary exhibition and custom designed tours

Nadine Akhund-Lange

- Lyceum Kennedy, New York, NY - High School Teacher 1997-1998
 - Taught classes in History, Geography and Civics
- Museum of l'Ordre de la Libération (World War II), Paris - Assistant Curator 1991-1992
 - Re-processed, described and arranged archival records
 - Standardized historical research on World War II personalities and wrote their biographies
 - Organized tours and special visits (World War II veterans)
- Paris IV Sorbonne University - Assistant Professor 1989-1990
 - Taught course: French Foreign Policy 1871-1904. Undergraduate level

Education: Paris IV Sorbonne University

- Ph.D. European Modern and Contemporary History 1993
 - Research fellowship with Ministry of Science & Research and Paris IV Sorbonne University
 - 1989-1990: Archival research-work in Vienna (minister of foreign affairs and defense)
 - Doctoral Thesis: The Macedonian Question, 1893-1908. From Western Sources. Awarded "Honors with the Congratulations of the Jury"
- M. Phil, Modern and Contemporary History 1987
- Master, Contemporary European History 1985

Academic Associations: Membership and Additional Activities (Selection)

- French Association for the Study of the Balkans (AFEBALK). Strategic communication 2017
- Conflict Studies Working Group, Partnership for Peace Consortium (NATO) 2015-present
- Defense Historical Service (SHD) 2015-present
- International Commission of Historical Slavic Studies affiliated with the International Committee of Historical Sciences (ICHS) 2007-present
- Association for the Studies of Nationalities annual convention (ASN), Columbia University 2002-present
 - Led panels on Southeastern European dealing with national identities, minorities, and nation-building process.
- Convention Executive Committee for the Association for the Study of Nationalities, Columbia University. Organization of the annual convention 2011-2013
- The Military Factor in States and Societies in Southeastern Europe, 18th-21th centuries Research Group, Paris I Sorbonne University-Institute for Croatian History, Zagreb 2001-2005
- Association for the Study of the Habsburg Monarchy, Center of German Studies, Strasbourg and Center for National Scientific Research (CNRS) 1990-1995

Annex 1: Selection 2012-2017 conferences and seminars (French or English)

2015-2017

Défendre un autre règlement de la paix : La dotation Carnegie 1917-1920, Université de Nantes, EHNE, Saint-Nazaire. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=qOrfcBtReVY>

Vétérans et Philanthropie : Rôle et représentations de la Dotation Carnegie après la Grande Guerre.

Conflict Studies Working Group (CSWG, OTAN), Ljubljana.

La Dotation Carnegie pour la Paix Internationale: Un nouvel acteur sur la scène internationale, université Humboldt, Berlin.

La Dotation Carnegie et la Grande Guerre: Civils, militaires et le leadership, Conflict Studies Working Group (CSWG, OTAN), Athènes.

2014

Les Balkans dans la Grande Guerre, Le Témoignage de la Dotation Carnegie pour la Paix Internationale, Sorbonne-IRICE-CISH, UNESCO, Paris.

La Dotation Carnegie, Les Balkans et la première guerre mondiale: Perceptions et Impact. Institute for Strategic Research, Belgrade.

2012-2013

Le Rapport Carnegie de 1913, Nouvelles Perspectives et Interprétations. Institute of National History, université Saint Cyril et Methodius, Skopje.

Stabiliser une crise internationale: La Macédoine et les Accords de Mürzsteg (1903). Austrian National Defense Academy, Vienne.

Un Réseau Transnational: La Dotation Carnegie pour la Paix Internationale. Association for the Studies of Nationalities, Université de Columbia, NY.

Une Intervention Internationale en Macédoine. Les Accords de Mürzsteg 1903-1908. Association for Slavic East European and Eurasian Studies, New Orleans.

Reconstruire après La Grande Guerre: La Dotation Carnegie et les bibliothèques de Belgrade, Louvain et Reims, une approche comparative. European Association for Urban History, Prague.

Annex 2: Publications (selection)

“Civilians and Leadership: The Carnegie Endowment for International Peace and the Great War”, Conflict Studies Working Group (CSWG, NATO), Athens 2016.

“Penser la Grande Guerre au prisme des Balkans”, Monde(s) histoire espaces relations No 9/1 Paris, 2016.

The Carnegie Endowment for International Peace in the Great War: Perceptions and Impact of the Balkans, Srdjan Rudić, Miljan Milkić (dir.), “Great War, Serbia, the Balkans and Great Powers” the Institute of History, Strategic Research Institute, Belgrade, 2015.

“Stabilizing a Crisis and the Mürzsteg Agreement of 1903: International Efforts to Pacify Macedonia”, Hungarian Historical Review, Vol. 3/3, Budapest, 2014.

“Une enquête internationale dans les Balkans. La commission Carnegie, de l’expédition au rapport de 1913-1914”, C. Horel (dir.), Les Guerres Balkaniques (1912-1913), conflits, enjeux, mémoires. Paris, Peter Lang, International Issues 31, 2014.

“The Two Carnegie Reports: From the Balkan Expedition of 1913 to the Albanian Trip of 1921. A Comparative Approach” Balkanologie, No1-2/Vol. XIV, Paris, 2012.

“Muslim Representation in the three Ottoman vilayets of Macedonia: Administration and military power 1878-1908”. Journal of Muslims Minority Affairs Vol.29/4, London, 2009.